ORDER

On March 3, 2016, the United States Magistrate Judge for this District filed a Report and Recommendation in this case. An objection was filed on March 8, 2016. In the objection, Plaintiff argued the ALJ erroneously ignored and rejected Dr. Kache's opinion regarding Plaintiff and the ALJ improperly rejected Dr. Paris' opinion regarding Plaintiff's below average ability to handle stress. The court has reviewed the objection and finds that the proper legal standards were applied in considering the opinions of Dr. Kache and Dr. Paris. Accordingly, the court overrules the Plaintiff's objection.

<sup>1</sup>The Court has been informed by Defendant that on February 14, 2013, Carolyn W. Colvin became the Acting Commissioner of Social Security. Pursuant to Rule 25 (d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Carolyn W. Colvin is automatically substituted for Michael J. Astrue as the defendant in this action. Thus, this suit will proceed with this substitution in effect. See 42 U.S.C. Sec. 405 (g) ("Any action instituted in accordance with this subsection shall survive notwithstanding any change in the person occupying the office of Commissioner of Social Security or any vacancy in such office.")

The Report and Recommendation found the decision by the defendant should be AFFIRMED. This Court finds the Report and Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge applied the proper standards and documents numerous references to the record which support the recommendation of the Magistrate Judge that the Commissioner's decision be SUSTAINED.

Upon consideration of the entire record and the issues herein, this Court finds and orders that the Report and Recommendation of the United States Magistrate Judge be SUSTAINED and adopted by this Court as this Court's Findings and Order.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 29th day of March, 2016.
